Skills and Attributes

I am an extremely motivated person who is passionate about the arts and the positive impact they can have on communities.

My aim is to make the arts accessible to all and I do this through initiating and implementing strategic and creative projects, programmes and events.

I have a reputation for developing meaningful collaborations and true partnerships and a proven track record in:

- Initiating creative ideas and bringing them to fruition
- Sourcing and securing financial resources
- Liaising with key stakeholders
- Working strategically to link different aspects of an organisation
- Managing and directing teams, communicating with a wide range of people and nurturing individuals
- Using my background and experience in education to inform my creative work and deliver training opportunities
- Recruiting, contracting and working with artists
- Understanding the needs and interests of specific communities and developing bespoke projects to achieve them
- Working independently and as part of a team

I enjoy participatory arts, the magic of the theatre – and have a particular interest in site-specific and location-based work.

Other professional development

I have attended and organised many non-accredited professional development opportunities, conferences, seminars and training sessions to enhance my knowledge and keep up-to-date with best practice. Delivered by organisations such as Foundation for Community Dance, Youth Dance England, Birmingham City Council, Swindon Borough Council, British Red Cross and Spearhead Training these have focussed on the Disability Discrimination Act, Emergency First Aid at Work, Safeguarding, Creativity, Youth Dance, Managing Conflict and Benchmarks for Quality.

Current Employment

01/15 – Present

Self Employed – sole trader of Jane Ralls Dance Management.

Offering services of partnership development, strategic planning, project management and coordination, coaching, mentoring and income generation.

Previous clients have included Birmingham Royal Ballet (for B'ham Dance Hub), Dance4, Woking Dance, FRONTLINEdance (an integrated dance company based in Stoke-on-Trent) and various independent artists (see janeralls.com for details).

My current portfolio of work consists of:

- Executive Producer, Anjali Dance Company - a company that celebrates the unique creative abilities and artistic potential of people with learning disabilities
- Arts Connect Associate (Artsmark) - delivering development days for education settings that want to gain the Artsmark and demonstrate their commitment to the arts
- Mentor to Flexus Dance Company, Wolverhampton (organisational development)
- Mentor to one of the founder members of Birmingham Dance Network (professional development)
- Facilitator of Focus - an Action Learning and Peer Support programme for arts managers, producers and artists

I also coach numerous artists, managers and producers and engage in voluntary work (see below).

Previous Employment

05/04 – 12/14

Dance Development Director, DanceXchange

Responsibilities included:

- To direct, oversee and link up all dance development, learning, engagement and audience development work across the organisation, including the Patrick Centre and IDFB
- To Line Manage relevant staff members (Community Engagement Manager, Class Programme Coordinator, Programme Manager for CAT and Project Managers)
- To initiate and develop strategic partnerships and projects which create a healthy dance infrastructure in the West Midlands and increase access to dance. Examples include the Outdoor Dance Programme and Dancing for the Games Legacy work, DAiR To... Dance Artists in Residence project (in partnership with regional venues), the Programme for Elite Students (in partnership with local universities), Belonging (in partnership with third sector charities such as Crisis and the Refugee Council) and The Centre for Advanced Training in South Asian and Contemporary Dance (resourced through the Department for Education's Music and Dance Scheme)
- To take responsibility for the representation of DanceXchange regionally (whilst the Artistic Director represents the organisation nationally and internationally)
- To initiate, develop and contribute to DanceXchange policy, with a particular emphasis on provision in the West Midlands Region
- To sit on the Senior Management Team
- To fundraise for relevant projects and ensure all activity meets agreed financial and statistical targets
- To evaluate and promote learning from all activity

- 05/01 – 02/04 Dance Development Officer, DanceXchange (promoted May 2004 after sabbatical)
An example project that I initiated, developed and managed was called DAiR (which stands for Dance Artists in Residence). Running throughout 2003, partners included Solihull Arts Complex, Malvern Theatres and Stoke-on-Trent Theatres. During this project Banxy and Luca Silvestrini were commissioned to create two separate performances for the four DAiRs (Dance Artists in Residence). These were toured around the West Midlands.
- I also managed a series of Raising the Roof Roadshows which provided commissioned performances and participatory opportunities for non traditional spaces around the West Midlands.
- 02/01 – 05/01 Freelance Project Manager for various organisations (including Swindon Dance and Bucks Dance)
Work included the development of a directory of artists and companies for the region.
- 08/01 – 02/01 Swindon Dance, Dance Education and Access Officer (Maternity Cover)
Example projects include organising a schools dance festival and working on The Main Ingredient, a site-specific Hip Hop event.
- 04/99 – 08/00 Wycombe Dance Project, Project Manager and Animateur (Part time)
During these roles I managed a class programme and delivered classes and youth groups.
- 04/99 – 08/00 Bucks Dance, Project Manager and Dance Artist (Part time)
An example project that I managed, for the opening of the Milton Keynes Theatre, was called Crossing Borders. This involved Motionhouse Dance Theatre, 75 community participants of all ages (including some people with disabilities) and the Milton Keynes City Orchestra.
- 04/99 – 08/00 Freelance Dance Artist for various organisations (including Chalfont Community College, High Society for Kids, The Dance Movement, and Stantonbury Campus)
During this time I worked with young people and adults – and ran an inclusive/integrated performance project.

Voluntary work

- 05/15-current Co-founder and coordinator (with Jenny Smith) of AMP (Independent Dance Managers and Producers) Network, which now has 191 members (self defined as Producers and Managers) in it's Facebook group and meets on a quarterly basis to share knowledge and provide peer support.
- 09/15-current Co-facilitator of an Action Learning Set in London, formed of experienced managers and producers in the arts, museums and third sector. This group meets quarterly
- 2009-current Director on the Board of Trustees for the People Dancing: Foundation for Community Dance, the professional (national) organisation for anyone involved in creating opportunities for people to experience and participate in dance
- 2009-2012 Member of the Management Group for Dancescape, the sub-regional dance development project for Solihull, Coventry and Warwickshire
- 2001 – 2007 Director on the Board of Trustees for DanceFest, regional dance agency for Worcestershire and Herefordshire
- 2001 – 2006 Member of the Management Committee for Dudley Community Dance Consortium

02/04 – 05/04

Volunteer on a community development project with the Maasai in the Rift Valley region of Kenya (through Madventurer). Work included building a school, promoting education and delivering seminars on HIV and AIDS (sabbatical from work)

Interests

I enjoy going to the theatre, cinema and art galleries, eating out and socialising with friends. I also like photography (particularly of a documentary nature) and attending exhibitions and outdoor events. After volunteering in Africa and having a family, I support various charities and, until recently, have sponsored a child through Plan UK. I swim and jog regularly, play the flute and also like to read. At Christmas time I often try my hand at various crafts to create gifts – though this has had various levels of success!
